

Christian Marriage Vow of Purity

As children of God, and followers of Christ, we commit today to abstain from sex before we are married. We also commit to not placing ourselves in situations that have the potential of causes us to fall into sexual sin. We commit to setting boundaries for touching and kissing. We commit to not being controlled by our sexual desires but instead being controlled by the Spirit of God.

Because we love God, we want His best for our marriage. We agree with God's Word concerning fornication:

“Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.” I Corinthians 6:18-20

We love each other deeply. But because we love Christ more, we commit to continually praying and asking our Heavenly Father for strength in this area.

Let these rings be a symbol of our commitment to honor Christ as well as our commitment to honor each other. We will wear these rings until the day we say, “I do.” These rings will become our family legacy. When the time is right, we will pass them on to our children and teach them to honor their bodies as the temple of God.

We gladly sign this vow of purity in the presence of each other and in the presence of two witnesses. These witnesses have agreed to hold us accountable for this oath we are making on this day.

And now let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in your sight Oh Lord our strength and our Redeemer. Let us not depart from what we have committed to in Your sight and in the presence of each other, In Jesus Name, let it be so.
